music as we gather – various pieces for flute performed by Robin Hegvik.
The Hegvik family were longtime neighbors and are lifelong friends.

welcome, candle lighting, opening prayer Rev. Darcey (Hegvik) Laine reading 1 John 4:7–8 John and Kathy Ryan, dear friends, next-door neighbors

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.

music Pastorale (Antonio Vivaldi)

Tom McCoy, piano; Carolyn Llewellyn, cello; Elaine Llewellyn, flute

Anne and Carolyn used to play this piece together. Dear friend Dorothy Wavrek played this piece with Carolyn to honor Anne. Now Elaine plays it on her grandmother's flute. Alas, it was hard to tune in the cold church.

reading Ecclesiastes 3:1–8, 8:15 Dave and James Llewellyn

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace...Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

reflections Rev. Darcey Laine

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, here on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

music and slideshow Misty and (They Long to be) Close to You, Errol Garner

Rich loved Errol Garner's piano music. Once, in his twenties, he and a friend spent an afternoon collecting just enough bottles and cans to afford gas and tolls and tickets and exactly one beer each at an Errol Garner concert in NYC.

THANKS to all who contributed photos!

benediction Rev. Darcey Laine closing music improv. Simple Gifts/What a Wonderful World (Joseph Brackett/Louis Armstrong)

Tom McCoy, piano; Carolyn Llewellyn, cello

You are invited to remain on Zoom for an informal celebration and sharing time after the official service.
It may be mayhem, but we'll give it a try.

Inflatable hammers, Canadian VO toasts, Wayne Products tee-shirts... feel free to bring your Rich Segermark memorabilia and memories.

HEARTFELT THANKS

to David Segermark, Paul Segermark, Darcey Laine, Alex DuBroff, Robin Hegvik, Mike Esterman, Tom McCoy, and all who helped put this service together.

*Love, thanks, and blessings to all of you here with us today,
and to those whom we are missing, too.*
